SUBSTANTIVE CHANGE PROPOSAL

Change in the Control or Legal Status of the Institution

City College of San Francisco
50 Phelan Avenue
San Francisco, California 94112

Submitted to

The Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges
Western Association of Schools and Colleges

Submitted by

Dr. Arthur Q. Tyler
Chancellor

February 6, 2014

Table of Contents

Required Substantive Change Proposal Element s:

A. Description of proposed change 3

B. Description of program to be offered (not applicable) 6

C. Description of planning process 6

D. Evidence that institution has analyzed human, physical, technology and physical resources 8

E. Evidence that institution has received internal and external approvals 9

F. Evidence that each Eligibility Requirement will be fulfilled 9

G. Evidence that each Accreditation Standard will be fulfilled 9

Chancellor. The input from the various constituent groups was considered in the Chancellor's decision to reorganize and empower the administration to "control" the daily operations of the District to meet the standard of accreditation.

The College leadership is supporting the process of cultural change through professional development, including a FLEX Day event entitled,

those needs by serving as the primary conduit for all sites to the Vice Chancellors of Academic Affairs and Student Development and to the Vice Chancellor of Finance and Administrat