

1 MULTI USE BUILDING 406.YPB4064

This building serves several academic departments, such as the Social Sciences, English, Criminology and Administrative Justice, Architecture, English as a Second Language, and Mathematics. If you are taking classes in these subjects, they may be in Batmale or in other locations around campus. Batmale Hall is also the home to the IT support department. You can also find the APASS program in this building. Don't miss the spectacular view of San Francisco from the plaza and a photo opportunity!

City College of San Francisco (CCSF) was established as
